Dear Mr Bertram

I refer to your email about the Clay Target Shooting Range located within the Bega Valley Shire Council area.

The Bega Valley Shire Council is the determining authority for development applications, including the activities at the Clay Target Shooting Range. The National Parks and Wildlife Service (NPWS) provides advice and information to Council if the development application may potentially impact a national park.

Please contact Bega Valley Shire Council which approved the development application for the activities on the Clay Target Shooting Range. Council can be contacted on (02) 6499 2222 or email at council@begavalley.nsw.gov.au.

If you have any further questions about the management of the Murrah Flora Reserve, please contact Ms Paula Tomkins, Manager Eurobodalla Area, NPWS on 4476 0800 or at paula.tomkins@environment.nsw.gov.au.
